depending on employment commencement date, a lack of uniform quantities, or where approval has been granted by management for 'themed' days or for specific events.

In accordance with Workplace Health and Safety best practice for sun protection, long pants and long sleeved shirts will be worn by staff that are required to work outside as part of their normal duties. This requirement shall apply unless an exemption has been granted on genuine safety or medical grounds at the discretion of the Coordinator of Occupational Health and Safety or the Chief Executive Officer.
