What is the Program about?

The Gladstone Community Legal Program is funded by Legal Aid Queensland (LAQ) to allow Farnsworth Legal to provide free legal advice and information to the people of the Gladstone region.

Appointments are available for an initial free consultation with a lawyer. Quality legal advice and information on a wide range of issues is available, either face to face or by telephone, including:

- employment
- police charges
- disability discrimination
- family law
- child support
- environmental matters
- debt disputes
- youth issues
- women's issues
- tenancy disputes
- welfare rights
- domestic violence
- advice for families with guardianship matters
- GAAT (Guardianship and Administration Tribunal) process

Outreach Services

Telephone appointments are available for residents of Boyne Valley, Discovery Coast, Miriam Vale, Mount Larcom, Turkey Beach and Rosedale areas.

Community Education

The Program also offers education for community workers and members of the public. The solicitor can prepare a talk on a variety of legal topics and deliver to your local community group or workers.

Appointments are essential. Please contact the Community Advisory Service to organise an education session.
