

MEDIA RELEASE

21 November, 2018

Council's performer call-out for Live @ Library Square

Are you a performer on the lookout for your next gig? Or, are you in need of the perfect space to kick-start your career? Gladstone Regional Council has just the thing for you.

Live @ Library Square is calling all talented locals to fill the 2019 performance dates.

Gladstone Region Mayor Matt Burnett said Council is proud to provide local performers the opportunity to showcase their skills.

"We have a region bursting with talent, so I encourage all local performers to take part in this initiative," Councillor Burnett said.

Live @ Library Square is hosted to encourage people in the CBD to take a break and enjoy the many talented locals the region has on offer.

For any performers interested in registering their acts, a registration form can be found here.

Please note: The Request for Services is due by Monday 3 December, 2018.