Step behind the curtains and explore GECC Open Day

Have you ever wondered what goes on behind the big red curtains of the Gladstone Entertainment Convention Centre stage?

Well wonder no more!

Break the fourth wall and step behind the limelight to discover the tips and tricks of life beyond the audience Saturday 2 February from 10am – 3pm.

Gladstone Region Mayor Matt Burnett encouraged all community members to attend the open day, which will be an exclusive sneak peak into the GECC venue.

“This will be a great opportunity for anyone aspiring to work on and behind the scenes of live performances to attend,” Cr Burnett said.

“The day will consist of venue tours, live performances, displays, screenings and upcoming events.”
