Connect with your local emergency services at upcoming expos

Gladstone Regional Council will be hosting free, family-friendly community days at Baffle Creek, Boyne Valley and Rosedale across the coming months aimed at connecting the community with local emergency and health services.

Attendees can learn about disaster preparedness and discover how the Local Emergency Coordination Committee (LECC) can assist in times of crisis.

Each expo will feature displays and demonstrations from emergency services personnel.

You can also find out about essential health services and other aged care service providers.

Baffle Creek Emergency Services Expo
WHEN: Saturday 5 July, 11am-2pm
WHERE: The Baffle Creek Community Inc. (569 Coast Road, Baffle Creek, 4674)

Boyne Valley Emergency Services Expo
WHEN: Sunday 3 August, 11am-2pm
WHERE: Grand Hotel Many Peaks (33 Morgan Street, Boyne Valley, 4680)

Rosedale Emergency Services Expo
WHEN: Sunday 7 September, 11.30am-1.30pm
WHERE: The Royal Hotel (2 Wills Road, Rosedale).

All events will have a free sausage sizzle for the community to enjoy.

The Baffle Creek Emergency Services Expo, Boyne Valley Emergency Services Expo and Rosedale Emergency Services Expo is jointly funded by Council and the Commonwealth and State Disaster Recovery Funding Arrangements.
