About the Program

The Gladstone Community Legal Program is funded by The Commonwealth Attorney-General's Department and Queensland Department of Justice and Attorney-General, proudly supported by Gladstone Regional Council to allow Farnsworth Legal to provide free legal advice and information to Gladstone Region residents.

During an initial free consultation with a solicitor, quality legal advice and information is available either face-to-face or by phone on a wide range of issues including:

- employment
- disability discrimination
- family law
- child support
- environmental matters
- debt disputes
- youth issues
- women's issues
- tenancy disputes
- welfare rights
- domestic violence
- advice for families with guardianship matters
- GAAT (Guardianship and Administrative Tribunal) process

Outreach Services

Telephone appointments are available for residents of Boyne Valley, Discovery Coast, Miriam Vale, Mount Larcom, Turkey Beach and Rosedale areas.

Community Education

The Program also offers education for community workers and members of the public. The solicitor can talk on a variety of legal topics to your community group or staff. Appointments are essential. Organise an education session through the Community Engagement Centre.
